

Worried about high oil costs?

Are you interested in being part of an Oil Co-op ?

My name is Karen Carpenter and I work for Derbyshire Dales District Council. Part of my work involves helping local communities with keeping warm and as part of this I would like to help a small number of villages by assisting them to set up Oil Co-ops.

I have booked a room at the local pub, The Sycamore on Thursday 11th February 2010 at 7:30pm

for all those who are interested. This will provide an opportunity to get everyone together and to discuss how you would like a group to operate.

I look forward to seeing you there.

My contact details are Karen Carpenter, Environmental Health Officer, Derbyshire Dales District Council, Tel: 01629 761316, or e-mail karen.carpenter@derbyshiredales.gov.uk, my normal working days are Monday to Wednesday.
